

Welcome to the March 2012 (monthly) edition of the coaching column titled ‘...On Line Delivery’ on Henselite’s website.

The theme of this column is.....

lessons learnt from coaching the Canadian squad in January, and, attending the Australian Open during February and listening and observing elite performers.

Lessons

- Opportunity: the one you have at the head is the opportunity; take it when it is presented
- Making mistakes means you are experimenting
- Einstein apparently said.....there is nothing that is a more certain sign of insanity than to do the same thing over and over, and, expect the result to be different
- Work with the best (eagles who soar) even though they may be difficult (people); they are single minded, focused and have tunnel vision
- Repeat the (grass) line, repeat the (grass) line, repeat the (grass) line
- Skills- there are no short cuts to any place worth going
- Quoting Churchill – success is going from failure to failure with no loss of enthusiasm
- Ideas on bowls are open knowledge, not owned, and, ideas are out there floating by on the ether (to be grabbed and used)

Enjoy the read.
